Does EU law apply to Bonaire Islands?

The islands are officially classified as public bodies [11]in the Netherlands and as overseas territories of the European Union; as such, European Union law does not automatically apply to them. Bonaire (including the islet of Klein Bonaire) is one of the Leeward Antilles and is located close to the coast of Venezuela.

Why was St Eustatius replaced by a government commissioner?

On 7 February 2018 the island authorities of St Eustatius were replaced by a Government Commissioner. This occurred because the island council, the executive council and the Governor were not performing their tasks effectively. The Government Commissioner will govern the island until the administration of St Eustatius is put back in order.
