My friend, I did the same as you. I have a 60W solar panel, a USB cable to the power bank, and the Anker 737 power bank. The antenna works perfectly when connected only to the power bank, but when I connect the solar panel to charge the power bank while it's powering the Starlink Mini, the antenna simply goes offline, and I can't use the internet.

If you need continuous autonomy in the wilderness, we recommend using a more powerful system combining high capacity with sufficient solar power (Gravity 756 with 2 Fusion 150 solar panels). For a lightweight and portable system, for occasional use only, the Gravity 27 or Gravity 40 batteries will be well-suited, and a small solar panel can do ...

The array itself shouldn't cause any problems but maybe if your StarLink cable is running along side your solar power wires the high current could be causing magnetic interference. I've got my dish mounted between two solar arrays on an RV roof without any problems.

The plan is to develop a much more elegant solution with fold-out wings using better (CIGS) solar panels (painfully expensive). If I use only enough solar panels to lay on the backside of the Cybertruck, I can get around 800W which comes to about 4kWh/day, which is about 12 miles/day if I drive slow. Not too bad IMO.
